What's to be done? Attendant: Don't worry, madam. You can try our express laundry service. Guest: How long does it take? Attendant: Usually express laundry service can be finished within four hours. Guest: Great! Attendant: I'm afraid there is additional charge for it. It's 50 % more. Guest: Okay, I'll take the express laundry service. So it is possible to get my clothes back and stored in the closet by the time I return? Attendant: That's no problem, madam. I'll put them on hangers in the closet.
25	The room attendant is called to Mrs. Lee's room. She or he: 1) greets the guest and offers help; 2) makes apologies and responds to the guest's complaint of the air conditioner and the toilet; 3) makes apologies and promises to find someone to check the problem; 4) responds to the guest's request for English papers.	Attendant: Good morning, Mrs. Lee. Can I help you? Guest: The air conditioner doesn't work. The room is very hot. The toilet doesn't flush, either. Attendant: I'm sorry. I'll send someone from the maintenance up to your room. Guest: Just a second, the door won't lock safely. Attendant: I'm sorry. I'll call the Security department to check the problem. Guest: Thanks. Could you please bring me today's English paper? Attendant: I'll send it to you shortly.
26	The room attendant is called to Ms. Green's room. She or he: 1) greets the guest and offers help; 2) wants to know the problem; 3) makes apologies and responds to the guest's complaint of the tap in the bathroom; 4) offers to change the room for the guest.	Attendant: Housekeeping. How may I help you? Guest: Yes. There are a lot of problems in Room 1512. Can you get someone up here? Attendant: May I know what's wrong? Guest: It's the tap in the bathroom. Also, there is neither soap nor towel. Attendant: I am terribly sorry about it, madam. We'll send a repairman there immediately. Guest: The floor lamp just went out. Attendant: That's bad. Would you like to change your room, madam? Guest: No, I like this room because I can enjoy a wonderful view here.

27	The room attendant is called to Ms. Wang's room. She or he: 1) greets the guest and offers help; 2) shows the guest where the safe deposit box is; 3) tells the guest where to find the instructions on how to use the safe; 4) tells the guest it's impossible to meet her request for borrowing an adaptor.	Attendant: Good morning, Ms. Wang. How may I help you? Guest: Hello. I want to know where to deposit my valuables. Attendant: We have the in-room safe deposit box. It is in the closet. Guest: Do you know how to use it? Attendant: Yes. You can find the instructions either in the Service Directory or read them on the safe. Guest: Can I borrow an adaptor? Attendant: I am afraid we lent out all the adaptors today.

How may I help you? Guest: Yes, I'd like to have an extra bed in our room. Attendant: Yes, Ms. Smith. What kind of bed do you need? For children or for adults? Guest: For our mother. Attendant: I'm afraid we have to charge half of one room night rate for such a bed, that is, RMB 425 yuan or 70 US dollars per night. Guest: OK, we will take one. Attendant: When do you wish the bed to be placed in your room, madam? Guest: Eh, any time before our mother arrives.
29	The room attendant is called to Ms. Smith's room. She or he: 1) greets the guest and offers help; 2) wants to know the problem; 3) offers to take care of cleaning the room; 4) responds to the damage of the mirror in the bathroom.	Attendant: Good morning, Ms.. Smith. May I help you? Guest: Good morning, I hope you can. Last night, I had two friends coming into my room to celebrate my birthday, but they drank too much. Attendant: Can you tell me what happened? Guest: Yes. They had broken a mirror in the bathroom. They had a fight. Attendant: Don't worry too much about it. I'll get someone to clean the room first. Guest: Yes, please. Attendant: And I'll inform the Maintenance. But I'm afraid you'll have to pay for the damage.

30	The room attendant is called to Mr. Scott's room. She or he: 1) expresses sympathy for the guest not feeling well and wants to know the problem; 2) advises the guest to see a doctor; 3) regrets for not being able to buy the guest some medicine and explains the reason; 4) offers to show the guest the way to the hotel clinic.	Attendant: I'm sorry to hear that you are not feeling well. What's the matter, Mr. Scott? Guest: I didn't sleep well last night. I'm feeling a little dizzy now. Attendant: Shall I send for a doctor? Guest: Not necessary. Do you have some penicillin pills? I'll pay you. Attendant: Sorry, Mr. Scott. I can't buy you the medicine. It's against the hotel's regulations. Guest: That's understood. Attendant: Let me accompany you to the hotel clinic.
